Canoe Assistant

Description: Help as a canoe volunteer with a variety of public and specialty canoe outings in our beautiful Everglades wetlands preserve!

These canoe programs include school field trips, family outings, visiting camps and others. Programs vary from one to three hours and are offered during the day, twilight and moonlight hours.

You will assist as back up support for our guided canoe outings as you help with setup/breakdown and during the canoe outing. You may be requested to monitor and document visible plants/animals seen during outing. After outing, you will assist with clean up and putting away materials and/or all equipment.

Required Skills: Must enjoy working outdoors and working with the public. Must be a fairly adept canoeist and be able to lift the canoes off of and back onto the canoe storage racks. Must be physically fit. Basic knowledge of the Preserves plants, animals, and habitats helpful.

Requires a commitment of volunteering a minimum of two outings a month when canoe programs are scheduled.

Training provided.

Minimum age 16 years old.
